

1910 WELCOMED.
With ringing of bells, touting of whistles, exploding of fireworks and cheer, the new year was ushered into office last night at midnight. As usual, the occasion was a gay one, and the young people made the most of it. Numerous watch parties were held over the city, and the old year was extended the kindest of favors, while a hearty greeting was extended to 1910.

EDUCATION CITY SCHOOLS WILL CONVEY MONDAY.

Monday the public school will close for the Christmas vacation, and is expected that a full attendance will be present on the first day. The teachers went to their homes for the holidays, but they will be in time for the opening of school Monday morning. The end of the first semester will be in January and the reviews will begin.

DISPLAY WINDOW OF OGILVIE'S IS HOODOOED.

Once more the hoodoo display window of L. B. Ogilvie has been broken. This morning a large "epidemic" crack was found as if it had been struck by a bullet. Several years ago on New Year's eve the window was smashed by a sky rocket, and once a runaway horse dashed into it. The window is near the corner and has a long pedigree of misdeeds.

JANUARY TERM BEGINS NEXT MONDAY MORNING.

The McCracken circuit court will convene Monday morning and Circuit Judge William M. Reed will begin his second term of six years as judge of the court. The criminal docket will be disposed of first, and there is about the usual number of cases on it. Following the adjournment of the criminal session, the civil docket will be taken up. Sheriff Ogilvie and his deputies have made all preparations for the opening of court, and on Monday morning Sheriff-elect George Houser and his deputies will take charge of the court as well as the county.

A Traveling Salesman.

H. F. Beers, 617 7th Ave., Peoria, Ill., writes: "I have been troubled for some time with kidney trouble, so severely at times I could scarcely carry my grip. After using one bottle of Foley's Kidney Pills I have been entirely relieved, and cheerfully recommend them to all. Foley's Kidney Pills are healing and antiseptic and will restore health and strength. Gilbert's drug store."

New Law Closes Liquor Makers.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 1.—Dietrich and brewers must close down their plants at midnight, as the new Tennessee law forbidding the manufacture of intoxicating beverages. The law is effective then. Prominent whiskey manufacturers of the state admit that the new law will be tested in the courts.

Literary club of which Miss Curry is a popular member, and toasts were given in honor of the occasion.

Mr. Clay is a member of the law firm of Clay & Clay and is a young man of superior force and mental ability. He is the newly elected county attorney of McCracken and in the Democratic primary and the regular election last November won by a most complimentary majority. His family is a notable one in Kentucky. He is the son of James F. Clay, a prominent lawyer of Henderson, Ky., and has lived in Paducah only a few years, which makes his election all the more a compliment. He is a graduate of Central university, Danville, and it was while at college there he met his fiancée.

Miss Curry is the only daughter of Danville. She is a girl of much charm and brilliancy and is believed in Danville. She will be a distinct acquisition to Paducah social life.

Mr. Clay will be accompanied to Danville by his cousin, Mr. Robert Hicks, of Paducah, who will be his best man. Miss Beattie Clay, of Henderson, who has visited her brothers here, will be an attendant at the wedding.

The couple will come direct to Paducah, stopping for a few days' visit in Henderson en route.

Informal Afternoon Tea.

Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, 2905 Broadway, will be at home informally on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in honor of Miss Adine Morton and the out-of-town guests for her wedding. It will be a small affair with the guests limited to the out-of-town guests for Truth and Beauty; joy in friends.

Wedding Announcement.

Mrs. Josephine Morgan announces good the engagement and approaching J. T. Morgan to her daughter, Miss Josephine Morgan to the Rev. A. R. M. Priddy, H.H. of St. Louis. The Paducah, Ky. will take place Wednesday 19, at 8 o'clock in the morning.

Some spirit, the Rev. B. V. Bolton, of cause they will, and the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church, officiating. The ceremony will be quiet, owing to the recent death of a sister of the bride-elect, and will take place at the home, 1627 Broadway, with only the relatives and intimate friends present. The morning after the wedding the couple will leave for a bridal trip through the west. On their return they will be at home in St. Louis.

Miss Morgan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josephine Morgan, and a popular young woman. She came to this city from Louisville three years ago when she resided. She is a sister of Messrs. J. T. and J. A. Morgan of the J. T. Morgan Lumber Co. The Rev. Sullivan is the pastor of the Carondelet church in St. Louis. The bride's home is in Plattburg, Mo.

The couple will be met at the station by the relatives and friends. The wedding will be a most interesting affair, and the bride will be a beautiful sight. The ceremony will be a most interesting affair, and the bride will be a beautiful sight.

To Entertain for Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Exall, of the Empire Apartments, will entertain with a german at the Three Links building, on January 11, in honor of their house-guests, Mrs. Julia Shields and Miss Lillian McGavock, of Columbia, Tennessee, who will arrive on January 10. Both Mrs. Shields and Miss McGavock visited Mrs. Exall last summer and made a charming impression here.

Out-of-Town Guests for the Morton-Taylor Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Adine Morton and Dr. John Quincy Taylor on Wednesday, January 5, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, will be an event of much social interest. A number of out-of-town guests will be present for the ceremony, and the town guests will be limited to relatives and close friends of the couple.

The ceremony will be solemnized at the home of Miss Morton, in the Shiloh, by the Rev. Grant T. Sullivan, D. D., pastor of the Broadway Methodist church. Miss Adah L. Brazelton will play the wedding march.

Miss Charlie Morton, a sister of the bride-elect, will be the maid of honor and only attendant.

The couple will leave at 6:10 o'clock for a southern wedding trip and will be at the Palmer on their return.

Out-of-town guests who will be present for the ceremony are: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Parker, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burnett, of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Baxter Pace, of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Gustav H. Warneken, of Clarksville, Tenn.; Mrs. John Coleman, of Louisville; Mrs. Robert Horner, of Bowling Green; Mrs. Anne Berryman, of Clarksville, Tenn.; Mrs. Will Jones, of Lexington, Tenn.; Miss Marie d'Antignac Allen, of Augusta, Ga.; Miss Lucie Norton, of Louisville; Miss Martha Marvin, of Louisville; Miss Minnie Marvin, of Louisville; Miss Anne Norton Gates, of Bowling Green; Mr. Robert W. and gloves to match. She is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smalley, and a young woman with a host of friends in the city.

Mr. Bell is the city street inspector, and is a son of Asa's Postmaster E. E. Bell and Mrs. Bell. He is well known in the city.

Miss Mary Lewis Fields, of Fulton, will arrive Tuesday to attend the wedding.

Charming Pre-Nuptial Luncheon

Mrs. Edmund P. Noble's luncheon on Friday was a charming complement to her friend, Miss Adine Morton, a bride of the coming week.

Rosemary, the attractive West End home of Mrs. Noble, made an ideal setting for the beautifully appointed luncheon. The color motif was pink, the center of the table was a tall crystal vase of the Enchantress carnations. Two smaller crystal vases of the same flower were on either side of the center, placed lengthwise of the table, giving the effect of a bed of the carnations. The place-cards were exquisite studies of Cupids and wedding bells. The luncheon was a delicious 7-course affair. The health of the bride-to-be was drunk from a silver loving-cup at the beginning of the luncheon. A number of clever toasts were given. The "Sunshine cake" was decorated with pink roses and crystal composites of the luncheon. The twelve covers included: Mrs. Noble, Mrs. Harry G. Tandy, Miss Adine Morton, Miss Marie

Brilliant German Last Night.

The German club danced the Old Year out and welcomed the New Year in a most royal way last night at the Palmer House. It was one of the most brilliant entertainments of the season and closed the club's 1909 record in a fitting manner. The attendance was notably large. A number of out-of-town guests and strikingly beautiful evening gowns added to the charm of the scene.

The german was led by Mr. Louis Riecke, Jr., and Miss Faith Langstaff in the happiest manner. Several new figures were introduced during the evening. At 10:30 Mr. Stewart Sinnott, manager of The Palmer, served an elegant luncheon with the compliments of the hotel. Punch was served in the cafe between dances.
